

WEEKLY REPORT

Work done in last week (Attach supporting Documents):

1. Creating database schema according to the desired relationships among various entities.
2. Designing the Add designation form which allows to add the designation and approximate salary as well as select the access to be given to them, also the existing designations will be displayed and will be given option for editing existing access and deleting the existing designations.
3. Providing the functionality of editing personal profile to the respected user, the user can change the picture, set new password and phone number, the changes will be reflected in the database.
4. Designing the forms with required fields to add vendor, add raw materials, order as well as return raw materials, adding new products.
5. Designing the layout of the forms to show the list of available users, current vendors, available raw materials, available raw materials.

Reason for incomplete work:

1. N/A

Plans for next week:

1. Extending the database schema for adding other departments and managing the departments according to the relationship existing between them.
2. Adding HR department which can manage the current employees and can keep a record of prospective employees.
3. Backend development and database connectivity of the manufacturing and sales department.

Signature of External Guide

Signature of Internal Guide

Student Id: 16IT073

Student Name: Harsh N. Patel